

EXTRAORDINARY AWARD PLAN

The Extraordinary Award Plan allows for discretionary or voluntary cash awards during the calendar year to eligible employees that recognize excellence for significant achievements.

PLAN SCOPE

This Plan applies to all DIRECTV companies and subsidiaries. Unless otherwise noted, all provisions of this Plan are applicable to U.S. Domestic Management and International employees unless local country law requires otherwise.

DIRECTV reserves the right to modify, amend, or terminate the DIRECTV Extraordinary Award Plan or any of its components at any time in its complete and sole discretion, subject to applicable local laws.

EMPLOYEE ELIGIBILITY

The following Career Levels C1 to C6 are included under the Plan:

- Management and Canada
 - Non-sales*
 - Full-time
 - Part-time

The following employees are excluded under the Plan, U.S. domestic or Canada

- Sales compensated employees*
- Bargained employees
- Contractors and Temporary employees
- C7 and above employees
- Officers whose compensation must be approved by the Human Resources Committee
 - Canadian employee eligibility may be subject to review by and applicable local laws, rules and regulations.

*Sales compensated employees eligible for Success Bonus are eligible for Extraordinary Awards.

AWARD TYPE AND PAYOUT

Extraordinary Awards can be submitted, and paid, throughout a calendar year, but are paid on a quarterly basis. Awards will be paid in cash, subject to applicable taxes.

PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

Significant individual achievements/high performance towards organizational priorities that demonstrate DIRECTV's cultural pillars. Performance criteria needs to be documented in the provided tool.

AWARD ELIGIBILITY

- Employees, except for retirees and employees who terminated without cause, must be employed at the time of award payout in order to be eligible for an Extraordinary Award.
- Retired employees and employees who terminated without cause may be eligible to receive an Extraordinary Award if the award was formally approved while the employee was still employed.
- Employees who have voluntarily resigned or were terminated for cause prior to award payout, even after the award was approved, will not be eligible for an award payout.

The DIRECTV Management Compensation Plan and the International Success Bonus Plan will serve as a guide for eligibility situations not outlined in this Plan. For any questions about eligibility rules, contact Compensation.

AWARD AMOUNTS

Minimum and maximum award guidelines by career level will be provided annually. Payout can be one award or split between multiple awards throughout the year for a single employee.

The Extraordinary Award will not be considered as a salary nature payment for any legal purpose and, thus it will not be considered by the Company for the calculation and payment of fringe benefits, vacation, severance and quotations to the Social Protection System and, in general, all labor accruals calculated over salary.

AWARD NOMINATION AND APPROVAL

Award nominations will only be considered for eligible employees as defined by this Plan. At minimum, the manager two levels above the employee must approve. Business unit leadership may add additional approvals based on budget holder. If nominator is the budget holder, it is suggested that concurrence from HRBP be obtained.

TAX IMPLICATIONS

Awards issued through this Plan must be evaluated to determine proper taxation and reporting. Country, Federal, State, Provincial and Local statutes require that compensation paid to an employee for services be included in the employee's gross income and subjected to income and employment taxes withholding. The amounts included in income and applicable withholdings are reported on the proper taxation forms issued by the respective government agency.

This paragraph serves as sufficient notice to participating employees of the payroll tax withholding obligations associated with receiving an award. All cash awards are considered "reportable" for tax purposes.

OVERTIME AND STAND-BY

For US employees, the Department of Labor requires employers to pay non-exempt employees overtime where applicable. Under certain circumstances, awards given to non-exempt employees must be taken into consideration for calculating overtime rates and true ups. Discretionary cash awards generally do not apply to the FLSA (Fair Labor Standards Act) overtime requirements, and therefore are not included in calculating overtime rates and true ups.

For Canadian employees, discretionary or voluntary cash awards do not apply to overtime or stand-by practices and have no impact on an employee's standard or overtime or stand-by rate of pay, subject to applicable local laws

RECORD AND INFORMATION MANAGEMENT (RIM)

Extraordinary Award Program documentation must be officially retained ACT+6 years according to the DIRECTV Records Retention Schedule by the Business Unit. Refer to series code HUM-200 in the DIRECTV Records Retention Schedule for specific details.

SENSITIVE PERSONAL INFORMATION (SPI) AND DIRECTV SECURITY POLICY REQUIREMENTS (ASPR)

It is the responsibility of all employees and vendors who have access to SPI information to adhere to the DIRECTV Security Policy and Requirements.

In addition, for international, the following applies: applicable local laws and regulations on data protection, e.g., the EU's General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) which is a set of privacy laws designed to protect individuals' privacy in Europe. GDPR governs how DIRECTV processes personal data originating in Europe including customers and employees. All parties involved in Extraordinary Award documentation and correspondence must comply with applicable privacy laws such as GDPR or otherwise.

EXTRAORDINARY AWARD OVERPAYMENTS

Extraordinary Awards are subject to overpayment corrections. Overpayment corrections procedures should be aligned with the DIRECTV Payroll Overpayment Policy, the employee's labor contract and legislation.

ADMINISTRATION AND AMENDMENTS

The Plan is administered by the Chief Human Resources Officer, or his/her delegate(s), who shall have sole authority to interpret and approve exceptions to the Plan.

QUESTIONS AND ASSISTANCE

If you have questions or need assistance related to the Plan, please contact your HR Business Partner.